This issue of MGW Newspaper, we have set aside our regular content in order to present a special

Welcome to a Special Edition of MGW Newspaper edition dedicated to the 2008 Coronation Event for the Court of the Great Northwest Imperial Empire (CGNIE).

CGNIE often gets a bad rap and easily dismissed as "that drag queen group", or they are simply not known even after 34 years. Yet, many don't realize that CGNIE is actually a nonprofit and its members work hard throughout the year to raise funds not only for Sacramento Charities, but for charities throughout the country as members travel to other Courts around the country and perform and donate.

The first time I attended a Coronation was over 10 years ago, when Emperor Jeffrey Gordy XXIV (elevated by Life Time title) and Empress Danielle XXIV stepped down.

Having no clue what CGNIE did or what I was walking into, I was overwhelmed by the enormity of it.

Now all these years later, thanks to MGW Advertising Manager and Crowned Prince, Rich Jones, MGW has spent the past year helping out CGNIE in a myriad of ways.

From donating items and cash, to emceeing events, running complimentary ads and even doing drag for Turn About ball, our staff has done everything we can to support this important local charity.

Now we offer the pages of our publication as another way to help the good work that CGNIE does get recognition from, and exposure to, our community.

We hope you will join us and the CGNIE crew for Coronation 2008 aka Flight 34: Final Destination Sacramento International Airport.

Also, please don't forget to patronize and thank the companies and individuals who have purchased advertising to support CGNIE and MGW Newspaper. It is these businesses and people who make our community a richer and better place to be.

Thank you.

Community Spotlight: FACES Nightclub's Newest Entertainment Team Member

Name: Joseph Lanzarin, but I go by JoJo

How old are you?

I am 24, and born in 1984, the Year of the Rat; which it happens to be 2008 and the Year of the Rat!

Where did you grow up?

I grew up in San Francisco CA, I have lived in Los Angeles, Hollywood, Sacramento, and Las Vegas

What's your background in entertainment?

At the age of 18, I knew after being a patron of large scale events and parties, that I wanted to get in on the action, but from the other side. I started pulling together recourses and planned out my first large production while I was studying abroad in Spain during my senior year. The event pulled 1500 people and was an amazing success. Although I spent over $20,000 on the event, I learned valuable life lessons and incredible business management experience at a young age. Since then, I have evolved my network tremendously and have graduated with a business degree. I started my own company; Flawless Entertainment and I focused on event production, artist management and consulting for nightclubs. I have been independently working with private investors and hot nightclubs around the country to throw spectacular events. There is nothing more rewarding then being at an event I produced and watching the crowd have an unforgettable time!

What do you do at FACES?

I am a critical part of the production/entertainment/marketing/promotions sector of the nightclub. I am also contributing to the opening of the all new 18+ club Bojangles which is set to open this summer 2008. Utilizing my national experience with event coordination and research on various markets I plan on implementing new formats of music and bringing Sacramento an elite talent group throughout the summer that is guaranteed to give our guests an unforgettable experience.

How did you get involved with FACES?

As a former Sacramento resident, I have always been keen on working with this powerful organization. After watching the gay community grow tremendously in Sacramento and meeting so many boys from out of town that were traveling to Sacramento just to dance and have a good time; I realized this was something I had to be a part of. I spoke with some of the management at the corporate office and sat down with them on several occasions taking notes and assessing what I felt would be most beneficial for them in terms of the services I could offer. I put together a proposed plan of action for this summer's pool party launch which commences Sunday May 25th and runs consecutively every Sunday thereafter. I knew having fresh ideas and a younger perspective on the entertainment would be quite an advantage for the club.

How do you think you can improve FACES?

I feel I could add an opinion that is backed with an immense amount of credibility and notoriety. Additionally, because of my business and sales experience I could be an asset in all of the negotiations for anything I am involved with financially to help insure costs are as low as possible. I also plan on managing a street promotional team in at least four different markets and utilizing my resources of media outlets to gain more attention to FACES nightclub

What sort of events are you planning at FACES?

FUN FUN FUN! We are thinking outside the box in as many ways possible to show the guests how much we really care about the time they spend here at the nightclub. The events all feature superstar talent, porn stars, models, reality show stars, live singers and dance groups. We also are planning on coordinating a special competition and prize giveaways with an emphasis on the pool and having fun in the sun!

Tell us about Flawless Entertainment.

Without a flaw; Flawless Entertainment aims to provide the most unique, professional and flawless service as a booking agency, consultant, or promoter. We strive to provide a roster of the most demanded and unique talent available on the market. We pride ourselves in being a unique independent company that is constantly in growth stages. Each of our relationships we establish; we value and give special attention to detail and service.

Flawless Entertainment is one of North America's leading special event promotions company specializing in upscale, sophisticated events targeting a fashion-forward clientele with a divine love for electronic music. Since 2001, Flawless Entertainment has been making history creating spectacular events. Famous for their legendary event Electro-Sex, the official closing Winter Music Conference event located at the Pawn Shop in Miami, FL. Flawless Entertainment continues to introduce new upscale venues and special events to their quickly growing national nightlife crowd.

FROM THE EMPOROR 34

It has been both a pleasure and a privilege to serve as the Emperor of Sacramento and CGNIE, Inc. for the last year. You never truly know what an experience this will be until you do it.

I would like to take a moment to thank everyone who has helped both myself and CGNIE, Inc. make this truly an incredible year.

I would especially like to thank:

FACES, Inc. To all of the staff at FACES Nightclub, Headhunters Video Bar & Grille, and Club 21—thank you for everything you've done this year to assist us. By opening your doors and your incredible hospitality this year and allowing use of your locations for both meetings and events. Thank you Laurie for your patience and generosity. Thank you Michael Hlyzoff for your words of advice and all of the opportunities you have given both myself and this organization throughout the year. Thank you Terry Sidie for your steadfast support through any and all situations. Thank you John Campbell for sacrificing many a peaceful Saturday and Sunday afternoon to come and open up Club 21 so that we could decorate. Thank you Marge for always keeping our interests in mind. Thank you to my bartenders for making sure that I never had an empty glass and everyone else that has been so supportive this year.

The Depot & Badlands. Thank you for all of your support this year, I know we didn't get to see each other as much as we liked but it has always been, and always will be a pleasure. Thank you especially to Michael Misha Kennedy for always having a good word of advice and always offering your hospitality for functions or just a nice relaxing evening of Bingo.

The Bolt. Thank you for all of the beer busts, good times, and nights by the fire. Thank you Kenny Yerkes for always supporting our endeavors in our community. You have always brought a unique experience that just makes every place else seem tame by comparison.

Outword Magazine. Thank you Charlie for all of the promotional opportunities you have provided us and always being willing to squeeze us in when you had room.

Mom Guess What Newspaper. Thank you so much for all of the overwhelming support that you have shown us this year. Thank you Jeffry Davis for always being willing to donate giveaways whenever we needed them. Thank you Matthew Burlingame for all of the support and advertising that you have assisted us with this year. Thank you Rich Jones for always going above and beyond whenever we have needed anything.

DJ Robert Long, thank you for always being willing to fill in when we've been in a pinch and for just being a friend.

DJ Aric Aricson, thank you for working with our schedule and always helping with the music and make sure our events go smoothly from the DJ booth.

Again I would like to thank everyone who has been a part of this past year here at CGNIE, Inc. You have all made this year an experience that I will never forget and will treasure for a lifetime

FROM THE BOARD PRESIDENT OF CGNIE

Welcome Distinguished Guests and visiting Monarchs.

It is a pleasure and honor to have you here in our beautiful city of Sacramento, the Capital of California, this weekend for Coronation XXXIV. I hope that is a weekend that will be most enjoyable for you as you help celebrate the accomplishments of the XXXIV Reign.

To the Board of Directors I want to say "thank you" for all you have done and accomplished this year. I know all too many times we get caught up with doing and planning, and often enough the "thank you" is not there. So, once again, from the bottom of my heart, "thank you."

To the Monarchs I want to thank you both for all your hard work this last year. You have raised monies and traveled the circuit. May this night be a most memorable one for you.

To Taryn Thru-U, thank you so much for all that you have done for this Reign, this Court, and this community. It truly takes a strong and loving person to step down as president so close to the end of one's reign. I love you very much.

To the community, thank you so much for all the support you have given and shown to the Court Of The Great Northwest Imperial Empire.

At this time, Ladies and Gentlemen please put your trays and seats to the fullest upright position and fasten your seat belts as we make our final decent of Flight 34 into Sacramento, California.

*Michael Hlyzoff
HM Emperor XXXIV
Board President & CEO - CGNIE, Inc.*

FROM THE EMPRESS 34

Where do I start this year at? Well, here goes nothing. I would like to start by saying "thank you" to my community for such an amazing year and a chance to serve as your Empress. I hope this year as your Empress we all learned to love thy neighbor. I love you all and look forward to spending more time with you over the next year.

What a ride I say. Thank you again to:

Faces Inc. and staff. Terry, you are an amazing man and you're always there for the Court and I thank you for that. Laurie, thank you for the use of the bar and never saying "no". Thank you for the donation of liquor for all of our events. You are a great woman and a pillar in this community—thank you for making it a great year. Cookie, thank you for all the white wine to keep me calm. You are not only funny, but a great man and bartender. Some man will be very lucky someday. Jerome, our other bartender, who never complains no matter what—I thank you for that. Marge, you are always there no matter what. You are a trooper that is full of great ideas and always willing to lend a helping hand. Thank you for all the great talks and the strength to get through it all. Michael H. you have been there for me through thick and thin keeping me calm. You are a great man and I say a special "thank you" to you for all you have done for this community, and me, and all you will do. I love you, Papa.

Club 21 and staff. DJ Aric Aricson, I wish you well in the title of Sacramento's Best DJ. You are a great help to CGNIE, and me. Thank you, Sweetie, and I wish you the very best in all you do. John Campbell. My man. My man in the black suit and sunglasses; protector of the Empress. Thank you for being there for me in all my times of need—when I was sick, when I was blue, you came over and took me to eat and made me smile. Thank you from the bottom of my heart, I love you.

The Depot and Badlands. TJ and staff, thank you for the use of the bar when we needed it and your help for Rainbow Festival. Michael "Misha" Kennedy, thank you for such great words of advice and always treating me like an Empress. You are a great man and I thank you for being a pillar in this community and most of all for being my friend. Thank you sister.

The Bolt and staff. Kenny, where do I start? Wow, what an amazing man you are. When I first stepped foot in your bar you told me that you would always be there for me and that meant a lot to me. A man who kept your word, I say thank you for taking such good care of your Empress and for being a true friend. Your staff is great, they treated me so well every time, and thank you for just being true. I love you my dear friend and I say thank you from the bottom of my heart. Love, The Bolt's Empress, always.

Night Life Security. Fabian, you are the one that I always could count on. You kept me safe on all my trips to the bar and you are a great friend. Your words of wisdom are great. Thank you for the long talks and your support for our community. Bill, the right hand man, I am so happy for you and your wife on your first child. You will make a great father. You are a well-rounded man and always so nice to me. Thank you for your friendship and for also keeping me safe every time. I wish you well. Wayne, the man full of jokes, but a true friend. Thank you for always keeping an eye on me while in the club and for always being there to talk to. I wish you well, my friend.

Mom Guess What Newspaper. Rich my Crown Prince, thank you for always lending a helping hand and never saying "no". You have been a role model in the Court this year, as well as the community, and I thank you for all your love and support. Jeffry, the publisher, you were here and then I didn't see you. I wish you well with all you do. Thank you for your friendship. Matthew, the editor, thank you for all your behind the scenes work. You have done so much: our tickets for Coronation Weekend, our program this year, and last year. Thank you for always opening the newspaper to Bruce and myself and pulling all-nighters for us. You are the best.

Outword Magazine and staff. Charlie, you have been there for us all year. Thank you for following our reign so close and for all the free advertising.

Stonewall Democrats. Thank you for all your support over the years.

SCCGRA. Thank you so much for all you have done for CGNIE. Our flags, bartending when needed—you are best. Sammy, you are there to pull it together. I look forward to working with you this next year.

Well, that's it for now. If you would like to read the rest of this letter please come to Coronation 2008 at the Courtyard Marriot Cal Expo, April 26, 2008. Doors at 6pm and Ball starts at 7pm. To the community-at-large, I just would like to tell you again what an amazing year this has been for me. It truly has been a year of growing and I thank you, again. Love always, The Community's Empress and if I forgot anyone, I truly love you as much as anyone else in this letter. And remember in the Words of Empress Deneka: "put Friends, Family, and Loved Ones first before the Faggotry Trust."

*Absolute Empress 34 of all Sacramento
And the greater Sacramento Area, Her Most Imperial Sovereign Majesty,
The Lovely Deneka Ashley Dille Moore
Surreal Deversville St. James*

LETTER FROM THE BALL COORDINATOR

I welcome and thank all who come to join us for Coronation 2008 "Flight 34, Final Destination: Sacramento International Airport". This night is the final step for both Emperor 34 Bruce Bedrich and Empress 34 Deneka Ashley St. James.

After a year of working for the community to raise charitable funds, they get one night to enjoy and celebrate with friends, family and other courtiers. I hope it proves to be one they will remember for the rest of their lives.

Coronation 2008 will also signal the beginning of the 35th Reign of the Court of the Great Northwest Imperial Empire, Inc. Two new Monarchs will be crowned and placed on the Throne.

Based on the results of the election (April 19, 2008 at the Sacramento Gay and Lesbian Center), Emperor 35 and Empress 35 will have one year to prove to the community, and CGNIE, that they have elected two appropriate people and thus will give us a reason to celebrate in another year.

I hope everyone will enjoy Coronation 34. As Ball Coordinator, I promise to you that it will start on time and that it will move quickly. Thank you again for being a part of Coronation 34 and supporting CGNIE for over 34 years.

Interview By Matthew Burlingame • Photos By Rich Jones

Tell us a little about you?

Well, I am the youngest of three brothers and I grew up in Lodi, CA; now I live in West Roseville. I spend most of my time cooking & testing new recipes on my friends and family. I love to just sit back, relax and just enjoy a day filled with food, friends and family. I try to get involved with non-profit organizations and support fundraisers—I enjoy giving back to the community.

Do you have any hobbies?

I love art and music, and I am a huge supporter of local artists and musicians. In fact one of my favorite bands, "Rise of New Audio" is a local band.

Are you close with your family?

Oh, yeah. Big time. I have a huge Greek family—it's crazy at times! When we all get together for the holidays there are about 23 people in one house!

Where did you grow up?

I was born in Lodi, CA, then we moved to Placerville until I was 5 or 6, then my Mom moved back to Lodi, until I was 17—then we moved up Roseville.

Who first got you interested in cooking?

That would be my Grandma. She would always be in the kitchen cooking. I can remember my Grandma spending the whole day just getting a big Sunday dinner ready!

How old were you when you first knew you wanted to make food your life?

Well, I grew up in my Grandma's Kitchen so I had an interest in cooking from the age of 7. But I didn't take it seriously until I was in my teens and working in my Aunt's Bakery.

Any cute stories about the first time(s) you tried cooking as a kid?

Oh geesh...I almost burned down the house the first time

I tired to BBQ. I think you could see the "Fireball" three blocks away! (laughs)

Do you specialize in one particular style of cooking?

I can't say that I have one style of cooking, but I think the best way to describe my personal style is. "Playful and Fun". I enjoy taking traditional "comfort food" or Classic Americana and breaking it down to its bare essence and deconstructing it—using seasonal fresh and organic ingredients for instance. I believe food should be fun!

What is your formal education?

Well, I never got a "formal education"—I couldn't afford to enroll in a Culinary Academy. So after my 21st birthday I moved to Las Vegas for a season. I would walk up to the Executive Chef and offer my services as an intern, so I would Cook during the day, serve at night, then bartend late nights at a few of the clubs. I did that for two seasons, spending time in Los Angeles, San Francisco & Las Vegas it was a great experience.

Do you have a formal Title?

Executive Chef / Operations Manager

Do you think the knack for being good in the kitchen is something you are born with or something you learn?

Both. I think anyone and be taught to cook. But I feel that unless you have a passion for cooking, you can only go so far with it. Cooking should never feel like a chore or an inconvenience.

Who are your cooking heros?

Would it be too cheesy if I said my Grandma?

Did you used to watch shows like "Iron Chef" and think "I could beat him/her"?

(laughs) I never thought, "I could beat them" but I would get a kick out of watching them making things like trout ice cream!

What was your first professional job in a restaurant.

Dish Washer and Pizza Boy. I was the kid that would toss dough in the air.

Tell us some of your other restaurant experiences.

Well, I have worked in every position in a restaurant—from dishwasher to Manager. To name a few, I have worked at The Palms, Hard Rock Casino, Belagio in Las Vegas—but one that stands out is my three years at La Provence as service manager. We received several awards in the "Best Of..." categories and were named a top 10 restaurant, and received 4 out of 4 stars by Sacramento Bee's food critic Mike Dunn. I was very lucky to be able to work such a great core-crew there. Kim Toledo, Shayne Bond, Shannon White, (who in my opinion is one of the best General Mangers in the game) it was a great place to work!

You're only 29 and getting some serious recognition for your skill. How does that feel?

Honestly, it's kinda weird. (laughs) But it feels great to know that people have taken interest in the concepts I create and are enjoying my food.

Tell us about Hell's Kitchen?

Well, I can't talk about it too much, but I am one of the hopefuls in casting for the next season. I went down to a casting call in San Francisco and I guess they took some interest. (laughs)

After all that, what made you want to take on Headhunters?

Well, I really feel that the community is ready for a place like Headhunters. People can come and relax, and enjoy themselves in an open environment.

Tell us about your ideas for Headhunters?

Fresh specialty drinks and martinis, small plate menus, awesome brunch, wine tastings, community functions, live music, private parties...

What style are you going for with the new menu?

I doing a fresh take on New American cuisine—offering a small plates menu as well as entrees. Also, since I have a sweet tooth, we have to have some rocking desserts!

What are some of your main dishes?

Everyone loves the "Sliders": Three mini ground beef sirloin burgers, the Lamb "Lolli-Pops" with greek salad, we are doing a "grown up" Banana split with caramelized banana brulee and chocolate truffle sauce. But the dish that gets the most attention is the Menage au Trios—three long stem chocolate dipped strawberries and two glasses of Champagne.

What makes you think you can make this restaurant work when so many others have had problems?

I really feel that you need to find out what your guests want so you can meet and exceed their expectations, A restaurant isn't just a place you go to get something to eat—people go out to be taken care of.

How's the experience Been so far?

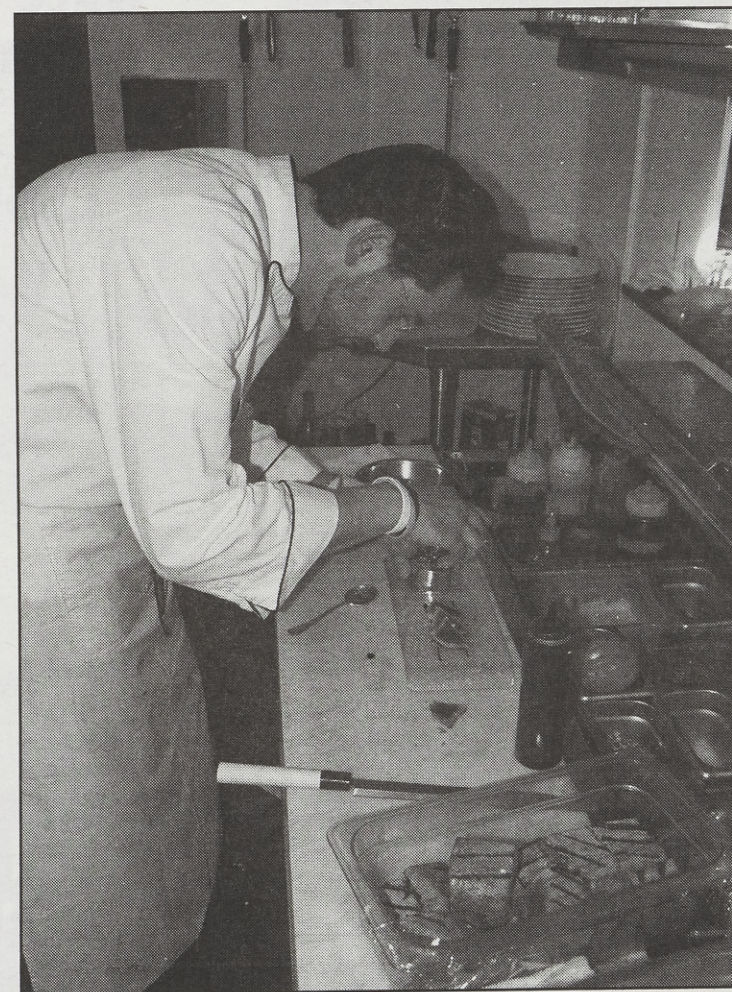

Great! I really enjoy the location, the support of the community and the idea of offering an open environment for all ages.

What are your plans to attract more customers?

Offer great food, great drinks and great service—or maybe I might dress up as one of those costumed mascots on the corners and start spinning a sign. (laughs) just kidding.

What do you want to make sure to get out to readers?

We are going to be doing some really cool fresh things in the upcoming months—brunch, dinner, lunch, catering, private parties, we will be hard at work creating a fun and exciting place for you!
